

HISTORIC PHOTOS

of

IDAHO PANHANDLE

The Jive Five

The Jive Five Band formed in Rathdrum in 1947 and performed around the Coeur d'Alene area through the end of the '40s. The Jive Five performed for dances at the swank Athletic Round Table in downtown Coeur d'Alene, the midtown V.F.W. club, and the ever popular Roller Rink on 4th Street when admission was just 50 cents! In this photo: Jerry Van Valkenberg on guitar, Ed Frandsen on drums, Ed Anderson on saxophone, Bill Hultman on piano and Ralph Lindberg on accordion.

Museum of North Idaho photo REC-54-1

Information provided by:

museumni.org